GRAPEFRUIT AND MEDICATION

While grapefruit is a nutritious fruit, many patients are concerned about the potential for drug interactions with grapefruit juice. Maybe you've received a medication prescription container with an affixed warning label that recommends you avoid grapefruit or grapefruit juice while taking the medication. Side effects can vary based on the interacting drug and possible side effects. Side effects can range from abnormal heart rhythms, stomach bleeding, muscle pain, muscle breakdown, kidney damage, low blood pressure, difficulty breathing, sedation, and dizziness. Other reactions may occur -- it depends on the drug and the levels of the drug in the blood. If you have been warned about a possible drug interaction with grapefruit, ask your healthcare provider to describe the possible side effect and learn how to recognize it.

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 20 - FEBRUARY 26, 2020

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)
 Need some adventure in your life? Exotic destinations beckon you. Problems with skin, bones, or teeth may mess up your schedule. Travel will be fun and entertaining. You may not be too pleased with the actions of those you live with.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)
 Be careful not to consume too many spicy foods, or minor health problems could put you out of commission for the day. An older member of your family may have left you with a pressing situation. Don't let your mate force you into making a decision that you aren't ready to make. Your diplomatic nature will help you in straightening out unsavory situations.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
 You are best to keep your money tied up in a safe and secure place. You can learn from those who have had similar experiences. Interaction with colleagues will only be upsetting. Arguing won't help.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
 Take time to do something nice for yourself. Communication will be the source of your knowledge and you must be sure to spend time with those who have more experience. Don't take offense at comments made by coworkers. Be sure to take time for old friends or relatives you don't get to see that often.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
 Follow through on some of the good ideas that come up, and you could have a real winner of a deal. The personal problems you may be having are interfering with your productivity. There's a good chance that they won't come back. You must take care of health problems that have been lingering.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
 Go with the flow and don't let the unsettled atmosphere get on your nerves. People trying to entice you to join in will be less than trustworthy. Try to make amends by planning a nice dinner for two. Be careful; you may upset someone you live with if you don't consult with them.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
 You might not be as reserved on an emotional level as you'd like. Try not to overspend on friends or family. Read some books on self awareness. You must act quickly.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
 Don't be too critical. Show what a dedicated person you can be. A lot has changed and so have you. Get together with friends for some competitive physical activities.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 -Dec. 21)
 Minor health problems could result through exhaustion. Invite friends over. If they don't want to get involved, work by yourself. Be prepared to neutralize any threats.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20)
 Think of joining a health club that will benefit your physical appearance. You're in need of love. Don't bother getting even; they'll make themselves look bad. Talk to your emotional partner about your intentions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)
 Spend time with your lover this week. Change will be required to make your life more harmonious. Your partner will be emotionally unable to cope. Business or pleasure trips will be knowledgeable as well as highly successful.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
 Try to take some time to listen to their complaints, and in turn, do something to appease them. Don't be a pest or a troublemaker this week. Your greatest enjoyment will come through social activities and pleasure trips. Make plans to mix business with pleasure. Dinner with clients or business associates should be successful.

'ROUND THE REGION
with Sharon

By Sharon Harris-Zlotnick

Hello Atlantic County:

COME TO ♥ THE ARTS

The Somers Point Arts Commission will host an arts event on Sunday, February 23 from 2 p.m.-4 p.m. at the Greater Bay Country Club in Somers Point. The exhibit will display the works of ARTS REACH OUT STUDENTS & SENIORS. There will also be poetry readings and jazz performances.

Enjoy a light buffet, silent auction and cash bar. Although the event is free, organizers invite any donations. The Atlantic County Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs will underwrite the costs. RSVP recommended at somersptARTS@gmail.com or 609-653-4991.

SIT AND SIP

When you want to feel like a sophisticated city slicker, visit Barista's Coffee House in Linwood. The casual coffee house serves numerous hot beverages in some of the largest cups around. Barista's is also a nice place to meet for breakfast or lunch.

A friend recently treated me to a relaxing lunch there and we sat on the plush sofa at the front door. You can choose from several high-top tables or, if available, the sofa, coffee table and large chairs. My friend wanted to stretch out on the sofa and so we did.

Barista's menu stresses that everything is freshly made. I believe that because you must go to the counter and order.

That allows you to customize what you ultimately select. The menu includes dozens of waffle, French toast, bagel and egg dishes, plus a large lunch menu of salads, quesadillas, avocado toast sandwiches and enchiladas.

If you prefer a heartier dish, check out the meatball, cheesesteak, chicken or shrimp sandwiches. There's even homemade chili in season.

I ordered two scrambled eggs with home fries and toast. My friend went for broke with a gorgeous plate of French toast with whipped cream. It looked delicious and you'll throw out the calorie chart for many Barista's dishes.

Barista's serves 10 Espresso drinks in three sizes; nine signature espressos with toppings and flavors-you can again forget about counting those calories-cocoa drinks, teas and coffees. On the colder side, there is a long list of smoothies and multiple flavors of regular and sugar-free syrups and sauces.

Don't skip the bakery, as if you didn't get enough of a sugar high from your breakfast or lunch.

At Barista's, you'll feel like you are dining at a slick downtown venue, not a storefront shop on the Central Square parking lot. www.baristascoffeehouse.com

KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT WINE?

I admit, I am an unsophisticated wine drinker with limited, basic preferences. Most of us do know people who fancy themselves "expert" in wine tastings, so wouldn't you like to up your game when speaking to them about wines and enjoy sampling some new ones at the same time?

Passion Vines in Somers Point is hosting "Wine Foundations Italy," a three-week "journey of Italian wine" program. The 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. sessions are scheduled for three Monday evenings-March 9, 16 and 23. Learning about wines from the North to the South of Italy, you will enjoy up to 36 wines from Italy's most popular regions.

Expect instruction on how to identify key aromas and flavors of Italian wines. You will also hear about Italy's main regions and grape varieties. It will also review terroir, or how a particular region's climate and soils affects taste in the wine glass.

The three-week course costs $199 and you may enroll in advance at www.passionvines.com.

A SECOND SPLASH AT A SECOND LOCATION

Norman and I met a friend at the Vagabond Kitchen & Tap House two weeks ago in Atlantic City, and as usual, it was very crowded. The Vagabond is the casual go-to place for area fundraisers and good food with generous portions.

It is hard to believe that co-owners Tom Harris Jr. and Elvis Cadavid opened the Vagabond in 2013. Reviewing my original interview with Tom, it is amazing that they accomplished many of their goals, such as adding events on different nights, building a wrap-around porch for increased dining space and improving the available parking lot.

Now these successful guys are taking an exciting plunge.

As we waited for our table, Tom showed me several photos of the total renovation and refurbishment of their second location in the Atlantic County "suburbs." It is scheduled to open in early March.

The EHT Vagabond Kitchen & Tap House is taking over the familiar McCullough's Pub & Restaurant in Egg Harbor Township. The property is "linked" to the McCullough's Emerald Golf course.

Tom and Elvis are gutting the bar area to expand it and retaining plenty of dining space. They will keep the Atlantic City menu, but also plan to introduce new items.

I live a few minutes away, so I'm looking forward to enjoying their giant sandwiches and great fries without the 20-minute drive. There is ample parking at this very accessible location.

I'll give them a few weeks to settle in before Norman and I try it out. I'll let you know, but I'm excited for them to expand. www.vagabondac.com. See their ad on page 2.

In keeping with my recent columns on false advertising, poor products, and inferior services coupled with the lack of meaningful governmental regulatory oversight, please consider the "good name" factor:

Mercedes Benz: Mrs. "Wiz's" brand new C-Class was the worst automobile we ever owned. For example, it would require weekly trips to the dealer for a failed electrical system whereby the turn signals would rarely work. She had to borrow the "Wiz's" Lincoln Town car to visit her mother in Bucks Co., PA because her vehicle would violently shutter going over 55 MPH on the AC X-way. One day her driver's side door fell off (not because of an accident or wind, but simply fell off) Her Lexus SUV was much more reliable, but now she drives a Buick Enclave which rides better than both of her two foreign vehicles. In keeping with our new policy of "buy American and hire Americans!" we are quite pleased with her GM product.

Pella Windows and Doors: Sometimes "buying American" is not enough. For example, our Pella storm door lasted about two years. Its interior was constructed of paper mache material and old newspapers. You would fare much better with Anderson windows and doors that are the top-of-the-line.

Gotham Steel Cookware: There are many examples of poor products hawked on TV. Some use actors with British accents to con you into buying. One of the worst is Chef Daniel Steel who pushes a Gotham Steel non-stick frying pan that sticks on its first egg from day one. The flimsy piece of junk, made in China, did not last long. On the other hand, our FARBER WARE pots and pans, made in the USA have served us well for more than a half-century.

Federal and state consumer affairs organizations are failing us more and more, every passing year. Remember this in November: The swamps in DC and Trenton still need draining.

TURN UP THE AC! - 2020

2/22 - Hard Rock - Eros Ramazzotti: Eros Ramazzotti is an Italian musician, singer and songwriter. Ramazzotti is popular in Italy and most European countries, and throughout the Spanish-speaking world, as he has released most of his albums in both Italian and Spanish. Since 1984, Ramazzotti has released 11 studio albums, one EP, three compilation albums, three live albums, and 37 singles. He has sold over 60 million records in his 30-year career. His repertoire includes duets with artists such as Cher, Tina Turner, Andrea Bocelli, Patsy Kensit, Anastacia, Joe Cocker, Julio Iglesias, Lynn Davis, Ricardo Arjona, Luciano Pavarotti, Laura Pausini, Nicole Scherzinger and Ricky Martin. Geoscape Solar, one of the country's leading solar companies, has made a multi-year commitment to Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties (JFS) as a Champion Agency Donor. Their pledge of $5,000 annually for the next five years will benefit JFS' community initiatives such as Village by the Shore, Atlantic Homeless Alliance, Vocational Services and Counseling.

"We're thrilled to continue our partnership with Geoscape Solar and welcome their support of our agency with their generous donation. As with all non-profits, every dollar counts and this financial pledge will benefit the programs, services and assistance our clients have come to rely upon us for," said JFS Chief Executive Officer Andrea Steinberg.

In business for more than 12 years, Geoscape is working towards creating a world without fossil fuels. They pride themselves on installing cleaner energy systems to allow residential and commercial businesses reduce or eliminate monthly utility bills.

"Geoscape Solar understands that non-profit organizations need funding as they are being squeezed from all sides with reduced endowments, income, and pledges, and increased costs for operations, facilities, and personnel," explained Lee Watson, Geoscape Solar's Chief Operating Officer. "By switching to solar energy, non-profits such as JFS benefit from drastically lowering utility costs which translates into more money to put towards their mission. Geoscape Solar not only supports JFS through our monetary pledge, but we also created a referral program that provides additional cash donations to the agency," he added.

In 2018, Geoscape installed solar panels atop the Margate building. JFS followed in the footsteps of Beth El and Beth Israel Synagogues who also utilized Geoscape for their solar projects. With the significant savings, the agency was able to redirect those dollars to fund other projects and programs.

For more information on JFS programs and services, please contact 609.822.1108 or visit www.jfsatlantic.org. For more information about Geoscape Solar, call 1.877.GEO.SUN.1 or visit www.GeoscapeSolar.com.

BOURRE AC

Submitted by: Judy Brenna, Communications Director – GACCA
 Director of Sales – Cuba Libre Restaurant & Rum Bar

As many already know there is a gem of a section in little of Atlantic City known as The Orange Loop. Contrary to creative ADHD minds (namely mine) it is NOT INFACNT an extreme relay team challenge involving skating backwards rapidly whilst eating orange creamsicles. Playing off the iconic orange section of real estate in the world famous board game Monopoly, The Orange Loop is just steps off the Atlantic City Boardwalk, starting with Tennessee Avenue then stretching to St. James Place and New York Avenue, consisting of three beach blocks of one-of-a-kind restaurants, bars, live music, coffee, yoga and so much more; a mecca in an urban environment, if you will.

The GACCA recently visited one of these mini meccas, Bourré Atlantic City, and feasted on an amazing selection of their crazy delicious dishes, stepping off New York Avenue and entering industrial New Orleans, complete with a 40ft shipping container bar! How cool is that? Really think about that. Sadly, I was unable to attend. I was doubly sad I couldn't make it because New Orleans Cajun cuisine is my ABSOLUTE favorite style of food in the known universe. And what made matters even worse, I wept uncontrollably when I saw what they got to taste. Sitting at my desk at ((shameless plug))Cuba Libre Restaurant and Rum Bar, located inside the Tropicana Casino and Resort, when I saw the menu I cried so hard I dehydrated.

I have always had an extremely deep affection for New Orleans, and the seedy history and complex culture attached, like, on a visceral level. I can't explain it I have just always had a bit of an obsession with the city. No other city keeps its history as vital or as accessible as New Orleans. Entire neighborhoods, whole buildings, cemetery crypts, manhole covers, cobblestone streets and ancient oaks serve as touchstones to vanished eras. In New Orleans, history can strut as loudly as a Second Line Band or creep as softly as a green lizard on a courtyard wall. And the food! I don't even have enough space on here to go into the bottomless pit of emotions I have to describe how I feel about the cuisine. Which is why I was overjoyed when I moved here to discover we have our very own little corner of NOLA right here in Atlantic City.

Definitely keeping with the theme of rebirthing former decrepit buildings and venues, Bourré Atlantic City transforms an old gentlemen's club, formerly occupied by Ria Strip Club, into an industrial New Orleans themed pub. It's a rarity to find a restaurant that accurately transports Cajun cuisine to the northeast (one comes close, but it's on Long Island and not necessarily worth the 2 1/2 hour drive) but Bourré absolutely delivers. And not only do they serve up some insanely delectable dishes (like Gator Bites – that's right, fried alligator sausage served up with spicy mustard, Blackened Red Snapper, BBQ Manwich with coleslaw on a buttery brioche bun, Savory Shrimp and Grits served with a bacon jalapeno sauce, and traditional Cajun BBQ with a twist), they also feature free live performances with amazing talents.

Bourré, along with the other venues in the 3-block radius, lends a fantastic Mardi Gras vibe, giving you the sense you're back on Bourbon Street, carefree, hopping from place to place, minus the stale smells of whiskey and urine. So that's like a huge plus. And not only does Bourré offer a huge stage for live bands and DJ spinning but they also house a massive outdoor space showcasing a large bbq smoker and outdoor games. And here's the kicker... This place won't burn a hole in your pocket! Unlike many venues in any city rocking overpriced menus, Bourré has such reasonably priced everything! And we all know (for those who read this and know me) this place is a haven for someone of a price-conscious variety like myself.

They have something fun going on almost every night of the week and coming up next week is their Big Fat Tuesday Celebration! Fun fact: though Mardi Gras technically refers only to Fat Tuesday, the Mardi Gras season actually begins on Epiphany, a Christian holiday celebrated on January 6 that is otherwise known as Three Kings Day or the Twelfth Day of Christmas. In Brazil and many other countries, this period between Epiphany and Fat Tuesday is known as Carnival. Whichever name you prefer to use, the revelries of Mardi Gras last until midnight when Ash Wednesday ushers in 40 days of Lent. So like any decent human who chooses to celebrate with absolute reckless abandon on the eve of a time of penance, Mardi Gras has always been a "quick lets get all the debauchery in before the Lord notices!" And the best part of participating in this debauchery is you don't need to tote yourself to the airport to celebrate, all you have to do is hop over to New York Avenue and celebrate in true NOLA fashion! On Tuesday, February 25th, Bourré is throwing a party rivaling NOLA herself complete with jugglers, fire dancers, stilt walkers and the Asbury Brass Band.

What better place to go to if you have a proclivity for history than this place, that still offers reminders of the building's raunchy past? Knowing how Atlantic City is steeped in rife history, much like New Orleans herself, Bourré is the perfect channel for the vibe of New Orleans, complete with a sinful past that sprinkles on a healthy dose of mystery with each dish. So even if you can't make it to their Big Fat Tuesday Celebration (because it's a school night and your stretchy pants are in the laundry basket), definitely try and get yourself over to é very very soon. Or else... I mean or else you'll regret it!

Pet of the Week

KATIE

Katie is a sweet 2 year old beagle mix. She wants to spend her days being spoiled and treated like a little princess. She would do well with someone that will take charge, she knows some basic commands if she knows you are in charge and listens very well to correction. Katie needs a home with no other pets and would do better in a home with no children.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

PPAWS Goes to School

The Seeing Eye breeds puppies specifically to be guide dogs for the blind. Only dogs that are bred, raised and trained by The Seeing Eye have the right and privilege to be called "Seeing Eye Dogs."

Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. Their foster families teach basic obedience and expose them to a variety of social situations they will later encounter as working dogs. PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye.

Jim and friends Forbes, Rockford, and Denny helped teach second graders about working dogs this past week. The kids spent the previous week learning about Helen Keller and The Seeing Eye. They were thrilled to have some real life guide dog puppies come to class. This type of outing also benefits the pups as it is exactly what leads to an outstanding working dog because it requires them to practice several skills, like greeting calmly, extended down-stays, and focusing on their handlers. Part of our mission as puppy raisers is to spread awareness of service dogs. If you have a question, feel free to ask!

PPAWS is always looking for more people to help raise these amazing puppies. If you are interested in more info, contact Peter at (609)804-8774.

OCEAN CITY EVENTS

Summer Concert Series Adds Don McLean and Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes

Ocean City's popular Summer Concert Series on the Music Pier announces two new acts for the 2020 season: Don McLean with opening act Al Stewart (August 17) and Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes (July 6). Tickets go on sale Thursday, Feb. 20 for both these shows with a special pre-sale (use code BRE) 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 19.

McLean is best known for his eight-and-a-half minute epic sing-along "American Pie," and Stewart hit it big in the 1970s with tracks like "Year of the Cat" and "Time Passages." Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes are icons of the Jersey Shore music scene and are still rocking with soulful guitars and blistering horns.

The Summer Concert Series is nearly complete, and tickets are on sale now for eight different shows. The series brings popular rock and contemporary music acts to the stage usually on Monday nights throughout the summer.

Ticket sales are open for the following shows:

- Get The Led Out: A perennial favorite tribute to Led Zeppelin. 7 p.m. Monday, June 22. Tickets
- Los Lobos and Alejandro Escovedo: This L.A. band blends rock, Tex-Mex, zydeco and blues with hits like "La Bamba". 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 23. Tickets
- Judy Collins and Arlo Guthrie: Two folk legends share the stage in Ocean City. 7 p.m. Monday, June 29. Tickets
- Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes: Jersey Shore rockers return to the Music Pier after a sold-out show in 2017. 7 p.m. Monday, July 6. Tickets
- Killer Queen: The premier Queen tribute featuring Patrick Myers as Freddie Mercury. 7 p.m. Monday, July 13. Tickets
- Straight No Chaser: An a cappella group with a wide repertoire and viral appeal. 5 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. Monday, July 20. Tickets
- Don McLean with special guest Al Stewart: Two iconic songwriters team up to bring back songs from the '70s and more. 7 p.m. Monday, August 17. Tickets
- Marshall Tucker Band and Pure Prairie League: Bands who helped invent Southern rock and country rock. 7 p.m. Monday, August 24. Tickets

Tickets for these shows are available only through Ticketmaster at www.ticketmaster.com. If these shows are not sold out before then, a limited number of tickets may be available through the Music Pier Box Office in the spring. The Music Pier is on the Boardwalk at Moorlyn Terrace.

Tickets on Sale for Girls Weekend Fashion Show

Ticket sales for the popular annual Girls Weekend Fashion Show will open on Monday, Feb 10. The show is scheduled for 7 p.m. Friday, April 3, and this year moves to a larger venue at PLAAAY Fitness and Yoga at 910 Asbury Avenue.

The event features clothes and accessories for sale in Ocean City's retail shops and modeled by locals of all ages, including members of City Council. The lighthearted event will be catered by local restaurants. Advance tickets ($20) are required. They will be for sale:
