YOUR HEALTH AND BANANAS

Bananas are an excellent source of potassium, a vital mineral and electrolyte in the body that carries a small electrical charge. These charges cause nerve cells to send out signals for the heart to beat regularly and muscles to contract. Potassium is also needed to maintain a healthy balance of water in cells, and offsets the effects of excess dietary sodium. An imbalance in the diet of too little potassium and too much sodium can lead to high blood pressure.

Excessive sodium can lead to a buildup of fluid in the blood, placing pressure on the walls of blood vessels and eventually causing damage. Potassium helps the body to flush out extra sodium in the urine, and eases tension in blood vessel walls. Bananas, rich in potassium and fiber and low in sodium, are an important component of heart-healthy diets. Slice ripe banana into a fruit salad. Squeeze a bit of acid like apple cider vinegar, orange juice, lime, or lemon onto the bananas to prevent darkening too quickly.

How to Watch Concerts and Broadway Shows During the Coronavirus Shutdown

Stay entertained during self-isolation with virtual concerts

The arts have taken a major hit as the coronavirus pandemic has shut down theaters and concert venues, including New York's fabled Broadway.

But as the old adage goes, the show must go on. Artists and performers are going online to entertain audiences — many for free.

Here's a list of performances that will keep you entertained during self-isolation.

JOHN LEGEND - Taking a cue from Coldplay, the R&B singer will be live streaming a concert from his Instagram Tuesday at 1 p.m. PT/4 p.m. ET. Keep an eye on the hashtag #TogetherAtHome for more artists. Watch at www.instagram.com/johnlegend.

KATHARINE MCPHEE AND DAVID FOSTER - "American Idol" alum turned Broadway star McPhee and her superstar songwriter husband are committed to performing at 5:30pm PT every day. And they're taking requests! Watch at www.instagram.com/katharinefoster.

HUNTER HAYES - On Friday night when Hunter found out his show on Saturday was canceled, he immediately said he wanted to put on a show for everyone in their living room. In less than 48 hours, he built a new concert for everyone under quarantine. Watch at <https://youtu.be/TcX5U5n48Gk>.

MARQUEE TV - Dubbed the "Netflix of the Arts," Marquee TV is a newly-launched streaming service that provides access to the world's best performances in opera, dance, theatre and more. Marquee is offering a free 30-day trial, with monthly subscriptions priced at $8.99. Watch at www.marqueetv.com.

METROPOLITAN OPERA - The Met will stream a title from its Live in HD series each night beginning at 7:30 p.m. ET through the duration of the closure. Watch at www.metopera.org.

THE 24 HOURS PLAYS VIRAL MONOLOGUES - 20 of the theatre world's top writers have been paired with 20 game actors and have written unique pieces just for them. On March 17, from 6 PM until midnight, the new monologues will be published, one every 15 minutes. David Cross, Rachel Dratch and Patrick Wilson are among the actor participants. Watch at 24hourplays.com/viral-monologues/ or on Instagram @24hourplays.

LIVING ROOM CONCERTS - Broadway World has partnered with some incredible singers to launch a series of daily Living Room Concerts — performances direct to you from the living rooms of Broadway performers! The concerts have already included Carolee Carmello from "Hello, Dolly!" and Andrew Barth Feldman from "Dear Evan Hansen." Watch at www.broadwayworld.com/topic/LIVING-ROOM-CONCERTS.

STARS IN THE HOUSE - Stars of stage and screen will (virtually) join SiriusXM Broadway host Seth Rudetsky and his husband, producer James Wesley. New shows will be produced daily at the traditional theater times of 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. ET. Each star will be singing a mix of their hit songs and/or something unexpected. Between each song, Rudetsky will interview the star, as he does on SiriusXM, leading them to give fun, inside stories about their careers. Both the star and Rudetsky will encourage people watching to donate at ActorsFund.org/Donate. Watch at actorsfund.org/about-us/news/stars-house.

This week's feature is about "Follow-up on Ocean Casino Resort."

Thanks for some sound input from another loyal "Wiz" reader John S. Esq., concerning the best buffet in town, we revisited the player's club at Ocean Casino Resort. We found that it was set up buffet style, albeit with not as many selections as Harrah's & the Borgata, but a buffet nevertheless. Thus, the "Wiz" feels comfortable in declaring OC with the best buffet in town but you have to qualify to enter.

If you have a high-level player's card such a Seven Star from another casino, Ocean Resort's host and Director of Casino Development, Ana Moore (Ph.: 609.783.8039) will likely upgrade you to their coveted "Black Card" so that you can partake of their complimentary buffet offerings yourself.

Attorney John pointed a key difference between this OC operation and the "The Amphora Lounge" club at The Borgata is that OC's does not charge you $25 bucks in comps to partake in the meal for two. Of particular interest to the "Wiz" was O.C.'s offerings of U-peel shrimp which were of the highest quality and quite tasteful.

Another point picked up by Mrs. "Wiz" was how much cleaner, not only in the club, but the entire OC property was overall. The huge garage of OC was clean and well-lit unlike Harrah's which has forty years of grime and dim lights many of which are often out lately. All in all, OC is a magnificent property deserving of trial visits. On the other hand, Harrah's and the Borgata offer better slot odds and promotions.

The "Wiz" can be contacted at WizardofOdds@comcast.net

Free Resources to Keep the Kids Learning and Entertained During Coronavirus Shutdowns

Instead of turning on the TV or letting them watch YouTube all day, entertain the kids with these free, engaging resources.

Due to growing concerns around the coronavirus, many New Jersey schools and large venues are closing temporarily. While you keep your family at home, you may be worried about keeping the kids' from going stir-crazy (or trying to quell their anxiety). Good news: there are lots of free online resources to keep them busy once they've done their remote school work.

In the wake of COVID-19, educational companies are offering free subscriptions to those stuck at home due to school closures. If you have Minecraft fans at home, try Minecraft: Education Edition, which helps teach Common Core math for grades 3-5, social-emotional learning and coding. Kids can also try websites like Mystery Science, which compiled lessons for grades K-5 to do from home (with no signup or student login required), and cover topics like animal needs, weather conditions, sound and vibration, light, communication, engineering and more. There's also lessons on germs and hand sanitizer, which could be helpful when explaining coronavirus to your kids. SmartMusic is a great site for your mini musicians to practice, access a large music library and also receive immediate feedback on their pitch and rhythm. They can build sight reading skills, work on music notation and accompaniment. For a full list of free resources, click here.

If you're in the market for other engaging activities while schools are closed, Raddish Kids is offering 10,000 free kits filled with educational and entertaining activities which can be delivered directly to your door through the mail.

With many libraries closing temporarily, or canceling their programs, you can still access many of their features from the safety of your home. Thanks to the Libby app, you can access e-books and e-audiobooks from your devices (phones, tablets and computers). Just download the app to your device, enter your library barcode and viola! You'll have access to books, audiobooks, magazines and other perks (like movies or music), depending on your library's resources, without ever leaving home. If you're a member of Amazon Prime, you can access a multitude of free Kindle books.

Try touring museums, parks and national icons from the comfort of your couch. Thanks to Google Arts & Culture, you can check out virtual tours of the largest temple complex on Earth, Yellowstone National Park, Champs-Élysées, the gardens of Versailles and more.

What is Social Distancing?

In order to decrease transmission of COVID-19 in New Jersey, it is now recommending that all residents of New Jersey practice social distancing. Social distancing involves taking steps to limit the number of people you come into close contact with. This will help to limit the spread of COVID-19 in the community.

- Social distancing includes, but is not limited to:
- talking to your supervisor, manager, or employer about the possibility of working from home where possible
 - avoiding visits to long-term care homes, retirement homes, supportive housing, hospices and other congregate care settings unless the visit is absolutely essential
 - avoiding non-essential trips in the community
 - keeping the windows down if you have to go into the community for an essential trip via taxi or rideshare
 - limiting or cancelling group gatherings
 - holding virtual meetings
 - spending time outside and in settings where people can maintain a 3-6 feet distance from each other

Please note: these guidelines are not meant to say "you must stay in your home!"

You can still go outside to take a walk, go to the park, or walk your dog. If you need groceries, go to the store. These are simply recommendations that while outside you make sure to avoid crowds and maintain a distance of 3-6 feet from those around you.

Remember: While you may not feel sick, and while we know these measures are an inconvenience, please be mindful of the members of our community who are more vulnerable to COVID-19 than others. We are all in this together.

JFS Transforms its Annual Fundraiser to a 'Stay Home & Support: No Show Cocktail Party'

As a precautionary measure due to the quickly evolving situation with the coronavirus (COVID-19), Jewish Family Service of Atlantic and Cape May Counties (JFS) announced today that it will transform the 13th Annual Cocktail Party, originally scheduled for Saturday, March 28, to a new concept – "Stay Home & Support: No Show Cocktail Party".

"The Cocktail Party is one of our largest fundraisers of the year, however the health and safety of the public, including guests, volunteers and JFS staff, is the agency's top priority. Therefore, we wanted to avoid any potential risks associated with a large gathering so we transformed the event so people can still support," said Andrea Steinberg, JFS Chief Executive Officer.

JFS hopes to raise $65,000 from the event to benefit its programs and services. Therefore, in an effort to make up for the lost revenue, the non-profit agency will offer unique sponsorship opportunity packages inclusive of a host of perks. Tickets for the event were $150 per person, so JFS will gratefully accept individual donations too. Every dollar is of the utmost importance as we understand that with the potential economic repercussions from this situation, our community residents may need assistance and JFS will be there for them.

For more information or to make a donation, please visit jfsatlantic.org or contact Kirby Reed at 609.822.1108, x144 or kreed@jfsatlantic.org.

Jewish Family Service Needs Food Pantry Donations

The current COVID-19 pandemic is causing economic instability in our nation and around the world. Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties remains ready to serve the needs of our clients and community.

JFS has been a staple for those seeking emergency assistance and food on Absecon Island and throughout the county. JFS is asking the community to donate non-perishable food to assure our pantry is stocked and able to provide food to people in need. Currently, the top donation needs are canned tuna, cereal, hearty soups and canned fruits.

Following the social distancing guidelines, collection bins have been placed at the following locations:

Pleasantville Police Department – 17 North First Street
Ventnor City Hall – 6201 Atlantic Avenue
Linwood City Hall – 400 Poplar Avenue

We understand that everyone is experiencing uncertain times. While we can't be together, we can still work together. By supporting JFS to serve children, families and seniors – we can truly help neighbors.

Please follow us on social media @JFSAtlantic for updated information, donation locations and services. For more information, please contact JFS at 609.822.1108 or jfsatlantic.org.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight
"MEET THE PACK!"

Welcome Quita!

The Seeing Eye breeds puppies specifically to be guide dogs for the blind. Only dogs that are bred, raised and trained by The Seeing Eye have the right and privilege to be called "Seeing Eye Dogs." Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. Their foster families teach basic obedience and expose them to a variety of social situations they will later encounter as working dogs. PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye.

The Tocci Family just welcomed their 3rd Seeing Eye foster pup, Quita, this past week. Quita is a 7 week old female Golden Retriever. She will be raised mostly by Ocean City High School student, Mia, but when Mia is at school, her Mom, Julietta, the managing broker at Keller Williams Jersey Shore, will take over puppy duty. The Seeing Eye offers a scholarship to any senior in high school that has raised at least two puppies for The Seeing Eye, one of which was raised during the junior or senior year, and who has fulfilled the criteria and obligations in raising the pups. The service scholarship goes directly to the college of the recipient's choice. Mia loved helping raise her family's first 2 foster pups and is excited to begin a new journey with Quita. She is hoping to qualify for the Seeing Eye scholarship.

Julietta Tocci said, "This program has brought so much joy to our family and I'm so proud that Mia is stepping up to take on this responsibility. There are so many life lessons that being involved with this program teaches, from empathy and community service to love and loss. It isn't always easy, especially when you get that call from The Seeing Eye that it is time for your pup to return for their formal training. But the year spent raising each pup is just as valuable to us as to the person she will eventually be paired with."

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, contact Peter at (609)804-8774 for more information.

SPORTS STUMPERS

Who said that?

By George Dickie

Identify the authors of the following quotes:

- 1) "Do things you don't like to do; bear down that much harder on what you hate doing. It'll make you a lot better player. And a lot better person."
- 2) "I broke in with four hits, and the writers promptly declared they had seen the new Ty Cobb. It took me only a few days to correct that impression."
- 3) "Sweat plus sacrifice equals success."
- 4) "As of this writing, 15 men in the history of organized baseball have ever thrown a perfect game. Only one of those men did it half-drunk, with bloodshot eyes, monster breath and a raging, skull-rattling hangover. That would be me."
- 5) "I don't create controversies. They're there long before I open my mouth. I just bring them to your attention."

6) "Ask not what your teammates can do for you. Ask what you can do for your teammates."

7) "I asked a ref if he could give me a technical foul for thinking bad things about him. He said, 'Of course not.' I said, 'Well, I think you stink.' And he gave me a technical. You can't trust 'em."

8) "It's not bragging if you can back it up."

9) "The will to win is important, but the will to prepare is vital."

10) "I don't want to play golf. When I hit a ball, I want someone else to go chase it."
