NUTRITION, WEIGHT LOSS & FITNESS

HOLIDAY WEIGHT GAIN

Holidays are sneaking up fast! If you are boozing and sugaring it up, you might not have an easy time going cold turkey. Sweet begets sweet — once you start mainlining it, you want it and a salad no longer looks good. Even when you start to eat better, there can be a lag based on the effects all that fun had on your body. Far better to just be chill in the first place picking one treat per event — i.e., at this party you'll drink, and at the next event, you can have dessert. Your indulgences are part of your healthy living — when they are planned, looked forward to, and savored. This is true all year long, not just at the end of the year.

The 1 of 4 rule: Of bread, booze, "dinner carbs" like rice or potatoes, and dessert, at any meal, you pick just one. Or two if you must, but skip the others.

As I suggest to my clients, eating a breakfast with filling protein, drinking lots of water, eating veggies, and lean proteins (as you would any time of year) and not showing up to food-centric events ready to gnaw your own arm off will also help you avoid holiday pounds.

HOROSCOPE

NOVEMBER 12 - NOVEMBER 18, 2020

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Avoid joint ventures and steer clear of groups that want you to contribute financial assistance. Try looking into new ways to make extra money. Use your ingenuity to manipulate things to get what you want. Someone you live with will, be impossible. Your high energy will enable you to enlist the help of those in a position to back you.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Try to keep to yourself; work diligently on domestic chores and responsibilities. You have been stagnating for some time now and you need a change of pace. Don't get involved in joint ventures. Insincere gestures of friendliness are likely to occur.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Your determination and sheer desire to do your own thing will be successful. You will find that you can work progressively at improving yourself this week. Work quietly behind the scenes. Talk to an older family member you have helped in the past.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Involve yourself in group endeavors. Your emotional attitude with respect to your status and direction in society may be unrealistic. Do not get involved in joint financial ventures. Be sure to take care of any minor ailments.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Make your intentions perfectly clear and find out exactly what is expected of you. Communications with loved ones may be strained. You can make excellent investments if you are in the right place at the right time. Emotional upset may prevail on the domestic scene if you have neglected your duties or your mate.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Abrupt changes concerning your professional position are evident. You need an outlet that will help take your mind off any troubles at work. You have more than enough on your plate already. Invite friends or relatives into your home.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Deception is apparent. You need to do more things that you enjoy. Haesles with female colleagues may lead to problems with your boss. You must steer clear of overindulgent individuals.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Try not to hesitate; act on your initial instincts. Don't be too confident that coworkers are on your side. You can sort out any differences you have in an amiable manner. Refrain from overspending on entertainment or luxury items.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You need some rest. Reciprocate by offering helpful hints. Someone you live with will get angry if you are neglecting your duties. Disputes on the home front may be hard to avoid.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan. 20)

Deception is probable if you don't use discrimination. If everyone wants to do their own thing, let them. Travel will be fun and entertaining. Get the red tape and the unwanted paperwork out of the way.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Don't let friends convince you that you should contribute to something you don't believe in. You have to take hold of your life and make some crucial decisions. Be careful what you say. You may overspend if you travel this week; however, the trip will be one to remember.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Get back to basics and reevaluate what is important in life. You will meet new and exciting people if you attend social activities or sporting events. You will have a productive day if you organize yourself well at work. Don't make large purchases or investments.

ATELIER BLB STORY

Joining the new businesses opening in downtown Wildwood, Atelier BLB, brings simple, sustainable and modern apparel and home goods to the island. Atelier BLB is a small apparel and lifestyle store, celebrating independent makers and thoughtfully-made goods. This small shop reflects the love of handmade pieces. Owner, a 3rd generation seamstress, sources stocks from across Europe and Morocco, India as well as making most of the items. When speaking about the idea behind opening Atelier BLB, owner Bianca Boicea says: "coming from a creative background myself, I was aware of the difficulties and barriers that small makers face when trying to get their work seen. Our aim was to help smaller makers who were making great products, but struggling to get their work into physical stores. We collaborate with artisans and makers specializing in traditional craftsmanship. Our makers have been selected for their compassion and dedication to their craft, their unique skill, and their attention to detail." As a result, Atelier BLB was born. After a great deal of cleaning, refurbishing, and building of interior displays, the store opened its door. With its white painted walls, pale wooden shop fittings and modern light fixtures the store has the ever appealing Scandinavian feel. The store emphasis is on sustainable, handmade, small batches and curated items.

The shop's future mission is to bring people together through workshops, events and opportunities to meet makers and local creatives. "We strongly believe in supporting other small local businesses, and shopping locally and collaborating on different events. The way that we choose to spend our money - what to buy, and what not to buy - can positively shape the future of this small local community. This is especially true this year, and it's important to consider that the presence of independents relies heavily upon the support of customers and community."

Follow them on Instagram and Facebook @atelierblb

Atelier is currently open on Saturdays from noon to 5pm. All other days please email blb.contactusa@gmail.com or dm on Instagram to schedule a private shopping experience in the showroom. 3113 Pacific Ave, Wildwood, NJ

Brownie Troop 11057 of Linwood worked together to collect non-perishable food to donate to the Annual Turkey Drive hosted by Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties. The bags of food, donated by family, friends and neighbors, will provide community residents in need with a hearty Thanksgiving dinner. Three Lessons From the Past to Help You Understand the 2020 Election (NewsUSA) – Think this election season has been the craziest of all time? Think again. American elections have long been highlighted by drama, scandal and intrigue — and the surprising twists and turns of presidential campaigns have a habit of repeating themselves.

Several aspects of the 2020 election cycle have undoubtedly been unique, with a global pandemic, protests for racial justice and extremist groups threatening violence. But from the civil rights movement to the Great Recession, Americans have previously headed to the polls through war, economic downturn and social instability. As the dust settles after this election, it's worth looking back to the past for a bit of historical context.

"In this crazy year, the best way to figure out what will happen to the country after everything settles down again is to understand our history," says Carlos Watson, Emmy-winning journalist, entrepreneur, political commentator, CEO of OZY and host of The Campaigns That Made History, a two-hour documentary that recently aired on HISTORY, covering the most surprising and shocking political contests of the past. For fans who have been following the burgeoning partnership between OZY, which seems to be the definition of media's omni-channel future, and A+E Networks, which owns networks including HISTORY and Lifetime, the documentary was a rare treat that meets the moment, allowing viewers to jump several steps ahead of the curve this election cycle.

"This isn't the first crazy election we've had — there have been five of these whoppers just over the past 60 years," said Watson, who has become one of the preeminent new media figures helping the public make sense of this moment in history — perhaps the next Doris Kearns Goodwin. Here are a few lessons from just three of those "whoppers" to help you contextualize the most recent election.

1. Anti-establishment candidates aren't just a 21st century problem. When Ronald Reagan, a former football player and charismatic actor, challenged President Gerald Ford in 1976, he wasn't afraid of abandoning boring political-speak. "Balancing the budget," as he quipped to Johnny Carson on The Tonight Show, "is like protecting your virtue: You have to learn how to say 'no.'" The California governor came tantalizingly close to defeating the sitting president. And while Reagan lost, Ford urged him to address the Republican National Convention anyway, assuming he would embarrass himself without a teleprompter. That was a mistake: Reagan delivered a stirring speech, putting him on the path to the presidency four years later.

2. How a contested election could play out "Florida, Florida, Florida." NBC's Tim Russert's election night mantra in 2000 would play out over weeks as the election outcome hung in the balance, and lawyers and activists descended on Florida for a disputed recount. In the end, the U.S. Supreme Court's 5-4 decision in Bush v. Gore overruled the state of Florida, halting a recount and giving Bush the win more than a month after Election Day.

3. The Proud Boys of 1968. A tumultuous year marked by racial unrest and assassinations of leaders Martin Luther King Jr. and presidential front-runner Robert F. Kennedy ended up with Republican Richard Nixon topping Democrat Hubert Humphrey. But segregationist George Wallace's third-party campaign, representing Southerners who had ditched the pro-civil-rights Democratic Party, was a shock to the system and a sign of things to come. "In 1968, the equivalent of the Proud Boys wasn't just some crazy group on the edge — they were on the ballot, got 10 million votes and won five states," says Watson.

'ROUND THE REGION
with Sharon

By Sharon Harris-Zlotnick

Hello South Jersey:

ISLAND LIVING ITEMS

It may have an unusual name, but Jamaican Me Crazy in Margate (jamaicanmecrazy.com) has really fun stuff for island living. The popular apparel/accessory store sells summer and winter casual clothing like lounging sets, sweaters and tee shirts. They also stock a huge inventory of hair accessories, beaded jewelry, masks-what else these days-, hats and other Shore "chachkas." Children even have their own separate section in the three-room shop. Although it is already mid-season and the Eagles have shown little to get excited about since September, Jamaican Me Crazy has a large selection of Eagles sweatshirts, hoodies, ski hats and tee shirts. It is more generic for the team and not individual player jerseys, which is good since it sometimes looks like a revolving team door.

Most of the store is now on a 50 percent sale, which actually could mean up to 75 percent. If the sticker was marked down earlier from the original suggested retail, the discount is based on that lower pricing.

I picked up a colorful Margate tie dye long-sleeved tee shirt for a trip to Florida later this year for $16.47, or 25 percent of its original price. I imagine plenty of people I meet will recognize the Margate logo.

COOKING IT UP...OR NOT

During these past several months, most of us have tried to "up our game" in the kitchen. I'm bored with the same old dinners and recipes, but how much takeout can you get?

So, I was very interested to learn that Ace Hardware will host a live YouTube event featuring Chef Jason, Ace's grill expert, on Thursday November 19 from 8 p.m.-9 p.m. Who knew that Ace has its own YouTube channel?

Learn everything from how to brine to the best way to carve a turkey. Questions will be answered live to help you have an easy and stress-free Thanksgiving.

The Turkey 101 session is free, but you must be an Ace rewards member-I am-to register and participate. It is easy to join the program and they send out all kinds of promotional sales events. Just go to their website (www.acehardware.com) or download their app for your phone. https://acehardware.ticketbud.com/turkey-101?utm_source=rewards&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=20201102

If you insist on getting turkey takeout for Thanksgiving, the Atlantic City Country Club (www.aountryclub.com) has compiled a savory Thanksgiving To-Go Feast menu of favorite foods for your family.

There are three package options to order for a group of four, all served with traditional sides and a delicious fruit pie-your choice of apple, cherry, pecan or pumpkin. The fee for all turkey is $125; prime rib at $160 and a combo of both costs $195.

Orders must be placed by Saturday, 11/20 for pickup on Thanksgiving Day. To maintain safe social distancing, three time slots are available- 11 a.m.-12 p.m.; 1 p.m.-2 p.m. and 3:30 p.m.-4:30 p.m. Depending on the time your group eats its dinner, these should be convenient for everyone. Place your orders at 609-236-4400.

PET FUN IN NOVEMBER

We have all heard that during this pandemic, the numbers of adopted cats and dogs has dramatically increased. Pets make everyone feel better.

Twice a week, the AC Press prints a page with 12 adoptable animals housed at the Atlantic County shelter in Pleasantville. Norman and I count how many and who was adopted each week or two.

It's a great way to showcase a potential pet. You often have instant chemistry with a "candidate" if the particulars are right-age, sex, breed, etc.

This is National PetSmart Charities Adoption Days, through Sunday, November 22. PetSmart is probably one of the best sources for finding a great pet. When you adopt with them, they provide a welcome booklet with dozens of discount coupons.

There are several PetSmart stores in our readership region and each has a cat adoption center. No pet is for sale, but they all represent local shelters who understand "marketing" a cat is the best exposure. Many of these shelters have numerous available dogs if a canine is your preferred pet. For us, rescue is the way to go.

Over 18 years, Norman and I have adopted Sunny, Mike, Toby, Rocky, Archie, Winston and Vinny from PetSmart-affiliated shelters. Sunny lived with us for 17 years, while Winston passed away suddenly at three years old. Archie and Vinny are our current duo.

Once you have your beloved dog, take him/her to All Star Kennels in Egg Harbor City (<https://www.allstarresort.net/>) for a day of fun in the daycare unit. If you board your dog, or even if it's just a day-long activity, All Star is hosting its first Friendgiving Daycare Party event from November 16-20. Any dog brought for daycare will enjoy a party of fall-themed goodies, decorations and more, all included in the daycare rate.

While they focus on dog care at this spacious complex, with acres of land for pet exercise, they also do a great job with cats. All Star has a dedicated cat room and pantry where Archie and Vinny have spent many a relaxed night over the past two years. Thanks to the attentive staff, I have always felt comfortable with their quality care.

THANKSGIVING 2020

Submitted by: Judy Brenna, Communications Director – GACCA
Director of Sales – Cuba Libre Restaurant & Rum Bar

Is anyone else freaking out Thanksgiving is only 3 weeks away? I don't get it. Maybe it's because of what we've endured throughout the epic dumpster fire that was 2020. Maybe I'm finally beginning to crack. That would explain the new found obsession with serial killer podcasts. Where did the time go? I'm pretty sure the shut down lasted 3 years and now all of sudden it's Thanksgiving?? I didn't even have enough time to prepare my inventory spreadsheet and consumption schedule for the leftover Halloween candy. Now it's over and I've lost any will eat it. Hedging forward... thanks to COVID-19, Thanksgiving gatherings (and maybe even the birds themselves) may likely be a smidge smaller this year. This holiday is all about spending time at home with family, so essentially it's a super COVID-friendly holiday. It's also historically one of the busiest travel times of the year, the day before Thanksgiving, bars doubling and sometimes tripling their daily revenue. Thanks to the state's curve ball of issuing a "no seating or mingling at bars" rule, I would in theory fear bar owners will be hurting, however, considering how awful human beings are in general at following rules (your honor, I submit Exhibit A, an image of Daytona Beach on Memorial Day Weekend) I have a feeling bar owners' pockets will be lined just fine. Just look at how creative we got with other holidays this year. The overall moral of the story being people won't let anything, not even a pesky potentially lethal virus, to keep them from having a good time ((chuckling)). Silly humans.

In lieu of the pots and pans, there are a ton of restaurant and catering options to choose from this holiday. I thoroughly love the idea of supporting local businesses as much as I enjoy cocktails ((which says an abundance)). If you and your family feel comfortable braving the indoor dining world, I urge you to do so. It will help in more ways than one. Here are a few suggestions: Starting from one end of the Boardwalk with the Tropicana Casino and Resort, we have ((shameless plug)) Cuba Libre Restaurant and Rum, Carmine's Italian Restaurant, Palm Restaurant, and Chelsea Five Gastro Pub (I highly recommend their prime rib), all open for the holiday and offering specials.

At Caesars and Harrah's, we have Morton's The Steakhouse and McCormick and Schmick's Seafood. Gordon Ramsey Pub and Grill is offering a special Thanksgiving Day dinner starting at $39 per person, including salad, entrée and dessert. And at Bally's, Guy Fieri's Chophouse is offering an impressive 4 course dinner package for the same price, and I for one am extremely tempted, specifically because their green bean dish has a bunch of bacon in it and I am a well known bacon junkie and if I try to resist it my body involuntarily starts profusely sweating. Over at Resorts Casino Hotel, Landshark Bar and Grill, Margaritaville, Capriccio, and Gallagher's Steak House will all be open for the big day and ready and raring to help you stuff you faces. If you decide to go over to Ocean Casino Resort you will not be disappointed. Amada and American Cut will be ready to serve you and your family.

The holiday season is always a special time at Borgata and Thanksgiving is known as the kick-off for it all. This year, keeping COVID-19 in mind, Borgata Eats is offering a truly great Thanksgiving dinner package, serving up to 8 guests, for only $239 (less than $30 per person), and includes a whole roasted turkey and 6 sides! They're offering contact-free pick-up service the day before and day of the holiday. As long as you arrive in your designated time slot, all you need to do is pull up to the designated entrance and pop your trunk, they'll do the rest! The only thing left you'll have to do is drive home, sneak the food into the house, and transfer everything to your own platters so it looks like you made it.

I don't know if any of you recall an article I wrote about a year and a half ago about the food funeral I participated in and how my friend had to roll my body out of the restaurant as I cried hysterically clawing for the dessert case. There are a few things I lose control over and one of them is Kelsey's. The plate has to literally be taken away for me otherwise I can't stop. It's rather embarrassing actually. And I don't know if what I'm about to say is good or bad for me personally, but Kelsey's is ((catching breath)) offering a comprehensive holiday catering menu, including roasted, smoked or fried turkey, cranberry glazed ham, a dizzying array of side dishes, and a slew of homemade desserts that will make your head spin. Is it really hot in here or is it just me? ((wiping brow))

Some other great options, one of them, of course: Johnny's Café in Margate. Not only are they offering a 4 course dinner with 3 seating times at 3 pm, 5 pm and 7 pm for only $33.95 per person, they're also offering a pretty great catering package that feeds up to 6 for $150 (that's only $25 per person!) and includes an up to 20 lbs whole roasted turkey with all the trimmings, a homemade pie, plus the option to add on other trays of food! Just make sure your order is in by November 16th. If you're dining in and can't imagine surviving Thanksgiving without Nonna's meatballs, eh fuggedaboutit, they'll take care of it, it'll be beautiful, you're welcome to order a la carte items as well. Romanelli's Garden Café in Galloway is also offering a full holiday dinner package for pick-up and delivery the day before Thanksgiving. You can find the order form on their Facebook page. Check it out!

Please remember, these are a mere few compared to the many venues out there in Atlantic County. I think it's a far better idea to forgo the holiday food shopping and cooking migraine and dish pan hands, and support your local business in the process. And there's a pretty good chance you'd actually save some money. Can you just imagine spending potentially less money on the food, eliminating ALL the hassle of prepping and cooking, and having the opportunity to actually enjoy yourself over the holiday? It sounds maybe a little impossible, but more importantly it sounds magical, doesn't it? Be the unicorn you always dreamed of becoming and place your dinner reservation or catering order today. Just remember Quarantina's sage words when playing your Thanksgiving 2020, "wear a mask, and always, always, always wash your hands". Until next week...#stayjerseystrong.

The Wizard of Odds

The "Wizard of Odds" is a local casino maven who has firsthand and accurate inside information on the best and worst casino deals in Atlantic City. If you follow the Wizard's advice in patronizing the best and avoiding the worst casinos, your money will last longer, and you will have a better chance to win. This week's feature is about "The Inside Story!"

Best Overall Slot Odds:.....Harrah's
 Best Casino Players Card:....."M'Life" Borgata
 Best Casino Promotions:(FSP, Drawings & Gifts)...(Tie) Harrah's & Borgata
 Highest Progressive Slot Meters:.....Borgata
 Highest Class of Customers:"The Nicer People Place".....Borgata
 Best Steak House:....."Old Homestead" ($$$$) Borgata
 Best Entertainment Program.....Hard Rock
 Cleanest Casino:.....(Tie) Ocean Casino Resort, Resorts & Borgata
 The Safest Casino:.....Borgata
 Classiest Sportsbook in Town:.....Borgata

While five recent "Wiz" columns were focused on how not to become a victim of crime while patronizing casinos in Atlantic City, some important changes have been made to the above "Best List." What follows is the inside story about these changes and why they were warranted:

First, missing from the list was the newly formed category of "Best Casino Host" which was designated on the advice of a "Wiz" reader. We tried her recommendation out at Ocean Casino Resort (OCR) in August but stopped going there because of a terrible combination of no upgrades, poor food, a severe cut in free slot play, and the absolute worst slot odds in town.

Second, a glance at the above "Best Casino Promotions" reveals a new addition, Harrah's when The Borgata previously held that title. Apparently, the host recommender follows the "Wiz's" advice when it comes to good promos. While we were dining in Borgata's Long Bar last month we heard her name called as the winner of $1,500.00 in Free Slot Play (FSP) which The Borgata hands out every 15 minutes. That, dear readers, is but one of the great ongoing free drawings that occur regularly at The Borgata.

So, you may wonder, how did Harrah's join that Best category? Another long-term "Wiz" reader won forty times that in cash at Harrah's a few weeks earlier, while her sister won $5K in the same 7 Stars drawing!

This past Saturday and Sunday The Borgata awarded an amazing $5K in FSP every fifteen minutes! Check their web site for a list of promo dates.

Value conscious players can find favorable price/value opportunities by following the "Wiz's" sage advice on where to play in Atlantic City. Now you know the rest of the story!

Hopefully, the new owners at Bally's will offer some favorable treatment for their casino guests, but only time will tell. Stay tuned.

The "Wiz" can be contacted at WizardofOdds@comcast.net

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

Go for the Harness Valley and Trexler!

The Seeing Eye breeds puppies specifically to be guide dogs for the blind. Only dogs that are bred, raised and trained by The Seeing Eye have the right and privilege to be called "Seeing Eye Dogs." Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. Their foster families teach basic obedience and expose them to a variety of social situations they will later encounter as working dogs. PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye.

This past week, Trexler (Lucille x Noah) and Valley (Caldy x Emerson) shared a van ride up to formal training. This bittersweet day comes at the end of over twenty months of puppy raising! Like sending kids off to college, we know that these two are off to continue their journey towards becoming Seeing Eye dogs. Still, it's hard not to miss a dog you have spent nearly two years getting to know. PPAWS is proud of the Tocci and Saul families for preparing Valley and Trexler so well. Good luck in formal training, pups. You'll be amazing.

PPAWS is always looking for more people to help raise these amazing puppies. For more info, contact Peter at (609)804-8774.

Program to Remember Rosa Parks on 65th Anniversary of Iconic Bus Ride!

On the 65th anniversary of her iconic bus ride that earned her the title "Mother of the Civil Rights Movement," the Atlantic City Free Public Library will hold a virtual program — Sitting for Civil Rights: Remembering Rosa Parks — on Tuesday, Dec. 1, at 7 p.m. via Zoom. The American Historical Theater will lead the program. Actress and historian Alexandra Ford will portray Parks.

Registration is required for this program. Please visit the Online Programs page at www.acfpl.org. A link to the online registration will be included in the description of this program. Those who register will later receive a Zoom link to attend this virtual program.

On Dec. 1, 1955, what did one woman on a Montgomery bus do to deserve such accolades and why? What drove her to her actions and what did she hope to achieve? How did this change her life, and the lives of others in the United States? Rosa Parks' story will serve to remind all who hear it that we cannot always stand by and observe the status quo. Sometimes, we have to take a seat to be heard and knowingly place our personal comfort aside in order to bring about the changes that will help "We the People ..." form that "... more Perfect Union" that is our Nation's promise. As part of her research on Parks, Ford traveled to Montgomery and Tuskegee, Ala. She has read all the biographies of Parks and examined volumes of supplemental material related to the Civil Rights Movement. She earned an AAS degree in Literature, Arts, and Philosophy from Camden County College, and her BFA degree in Theatre Studies from Montclair State University. Effective Tuesday, September 8, 2020, all ACLS branches will be open Monday through Friday, 9:30 AM - 5:00 PM. The first hour of each day is designated for use by those at high risk for Covid-19 as defined by the Centers for Disease Control. This includes the elderly and those with underlying medical conditions. Library users will be asked to complete their visit as quickly as possible and to keep it under 1 hour so that others may enter the facility. Curbside pick-up is available at all our branches and encouraged. Book drops are open for returns at all our branches. Please allow at least 3 days for items to be removed from your account.

Availability to in-house services such as Mobile Printing, copiers, scanners, and public computers are subject to branch openings and guidelines. The Interlibrary Loan (ILL) service is not available at this time. Book Donations are currently not being accepted. In person programs and events, including Storytime and Book Clubs, are not being scheduled at this time.
